

Friday, June 11, 8 pm

PIPES & FIRE

The Prince Albert Pipe Band evoke blue and green from the flames of a pottery pit fire. Set against the scenic view from the river hill, the pipers circle the pit fire while the flames leap upwards.

#4 Riverview Arts

3 km North, hwy 55.

Saturday & Sunday June 12 & 13

#1. Nisse Foundry

1 a. Jim & Debbie Jensen

Jim & Debbie cast original or custom bronze sculpture, sundials and plaques using both sand and lost wax casting methods. The log foundry has put out bronze sculpture from mice to life-size horses.

306-468-2853

nisse@sasktel.net

1 b. Craig Campbell

Blacksmithing offers an opportunity to create objects that are pleasing to view, to touch and sometimes even to listen to. Using heat and hammer metal is coaxed into new and intriguing shapes

306-244-3945

craig@craigcampbell.ca

1 c. Larry Trask

Larry's compositions tell the viewer something about the character of the subject rather than just an anatomical representation. Larry is a wildlife artist, sculptor who pushes the boundaries of his medium.

trask@sasktel.net

#1**Located 29 km West of Shellbrook -hwy 3 & 3 km N

#2. Honeywood Heritage Nursery

2 a. Honeywood Nursery Tours of the Nursery. Lilies available to purchase or order for fall. Food and refreshments available. Taste and purchase jams & jellies made with produce from the nursery.

306-747-3307

www.honeywood-lilies.ca

2 b. Ruby Hannigan - Bees wax candles, honey; landscapes in oil and quilts.

2 c. Lorraine Adamson - Lorraine enjoys turning simple clay into functional items on the wheel, hand building pieces that push conventional limits and the unpredictable reaction of earth and fire that result.

747-2704

ladamson@skvelocity.ca

2 d. Brenda Piper -Stepping stones.

2 e. Lise Olson - Lise enjoys bringing form and beauty to a piece of rough stone. She approaches her carvings with enthusiasm, passion and dedication; each stone is a new beginning, a new creation.

dlolson@sasktel.net

#2**Located 4 miles South and 1 mile West of Parkside

#3. Hand Blown Glass & Design

3 a. Ron Anderson

Blown and fused glass design. Ron is a student of glassblowing who has built most of his own hot-shop equipment and is currently working to further master the craft of glassblowing.

306-747-3063

3 b. Bernie Christenson (of Vanguard) 306-582-6138

Bernie has coauthored and published 4 books since retirement from farming and auto-body. His short stories are based on true numerous events of life in Saskatchewan.

3 c. Bernice Christenson (of Vanguard) 306-582-6138

Bernice has drawn & painted most of her life. She continues to develop her art through university and Red Deer College classes. She has a commercial art certificate.

#3**Located 9.5 km South on the Wingard Ferry Road

#4. Riverview Arts

4 a. Pat Grayston, BA, BEd, BFA Great Distinction

Pat has an intaglio press, both for her hand-pulled prints and woodcuts. Pat produces distinctive horse-hair and pit fired pottery as well as teapots and other functional ware.

306-747-7221

www.riverviewarts.com

4 b. Anna Wallbillig (North Battleford) 306-937-7540

By using decorative techniques of fabric painting, appliqué, thread painting, embroidery and artfully altered fabric and combining different colors and textures of fabric Anna makes each article of clothing unique.

4 c. Madelaine Walker (Saskatoon) 306-955-8059

Fibreline - With 35 yrs of fiber craft, Madelaine excelled in the SIAST Applied Arts Weaving Program. She uses natural fibers to weave, currently spinning flax into linen thread and weaving it.

tl.walk@sasktel.net

4 d. Richard Stieb (Prince Albert) 306-763-7937

Richard uses Whitetail deer antler (referred to as sheds) to carve distinctive deer antler jewelry. His jewelry has a natural and unique appearance as he creates his own carving designs and techniques.

4 e. Dolores Miller (La Ronge) northernlights@sasktel.net

The reflectivity, fluidity and clarity of color of glass are all qualities of a beautiful northern day. Each piece of jewelry or stained glass panel we create reflects our appreciation of the magnificent country we live in.

#4**Located 3 km North of Shellbrook on Highway 55

#5. R&C Dreamworks

306-747-2348

Russ & Carol Hofferd specialize in stained glass mirrors, ornaments, mosaics and kiln work. Each project is a challenge as glass takes on a 'life' of it's own. The Hofferds are members of Saskatoon's glass guild.

#5**Located at 707 Chambers Court, Shellbrook

#6. Art Works by Estelle

6 a. Estelle Dows

306-747-3002

Estelle paints a variety of subjects in several media, including watercolour, acrylic, oil and pen and ink. She finds that realism and impressionism are usually working at the same time. Local landscapes prevail.

6 b. Muriel Nuesch - (Saskatoon) 306- 664-9941

Muriel is proficient in an eclectic mix of art forms including clay and ceramics, painting in mixed mediums and Rosemaling. Her vivid imagination is revealed in abstract pictures, and whimsical clay creations.

6 c. Majella Gareau - (Saskatoon)

Majella loves painting with an impressionistic flavour; whether it is in a studio or plein-air. She also embarks on projects such as stained glass, quilting, music, canvas or fabric painting, photography, etc.

6 d. Willie Schachtel - (Waskesiu) 306-663-4755

Willie is a self-taught painter who now combines her painting with wood burning. No other hobby "takes her away" like her painting and wood burning.

#6**Located at 112, 5th Ave East (St. Agatha's Church)

#7. Pottery by Sylvia

7 a. Sylvia Jones

sylviajones14@yahoo.com

Sylvia took her training through the U of S. Her functional and handcrafted items feature her well known pussy willow design as well as a variety of glazing techniques. She has been a potter for 20 years.

7 b. My Hubby's Sheds N' Such Janet Harris

Janet is inspired by the beauty of God's creations which comes naturally living in Northern Saskatchewan. The materials and sheds are all local products found in Northern Saskatchewan.

myhubbyssheds@yahoo.com

#7**Located at 507, 1st Ave East, Shellbrook

#8. Traditional Fine Craft

8 a. Betty Fiddler

Betty has become known for her unique and exceptional beadwork. She has learned how to skillfully work with materials such as moose, elk and deer hides. Teepee village is featured.

traditionalfinecrafts@hotmail.com

8 b. Shirley Cromarty-(Big River) 306-469-4952

In 1970 Shirley began quilting and has developed into an established fabric artist. She now teaches quilting, and sells her own line of hand dyed fabrics. She makes unique, individual quilts.

kschromarty@gmail.com

#8**Located 1 km South on Wingard Ferry Road.